

(100) Name of interviewee in reverse order, birth and death dates if known

Cutera, Cindy

Date of Birth: December 1956

(245) Year of interview

2012

(300/1) Number of cassettes 1 Format Digital (DVD)

Time in hours or minutes

13:15

(300/2) Number of pages in transcript

8

(545) Biographical information

Mrs. Cutera was born in December 1965 in Morgan City, Louisiana. Mrs. Cutera is married. She and her husband are lifetime residents of Morgan City. They have three daughters.

(520) Scope and content of interview

Mrs. Cindy Cutera discusses the important role that the Coastal Wetlands Planning, Protection, and Restoration Act (CWPPRA) plays in preserving the wetlands, specifically around Mrs. Cutera's hometown of Morgan City, Louisiana. The interview is conducted at Lake End Park which benefited from a beach extension project. Mrs. Cutera discusses why the wetlands are important both locally and nationally. She discusses the importance of the CWPPRA project's being tied to the State's Master Plan. Mrs. Cutera recalls the impact that Hurricane Katrina has on the area. Mrs. Cutera offers advice for future generations. Mrs. Cutera also provides a brief family history of her husband's family.

(500) Interviewer's name

Cole Ruckstuhl

(555) Is an abstract available?

No

Subjects and Subject Terms

Lake End Park

Atchafalaya River

Sediment Delivery

Coastal Wetlands Planning, Protection, and Restoration Act (CWPPRA)

Erosion

Land Loss in Houma/Terrebonne areas

Bank Stabilization Projects
Hurricane Katrina and its impact on Morgan City area
Corps of Engineers
Lake Palourde
Port of Morgan City
Waterways

(600) Person as subject

Guarisco Family

(610) Corporate entities

Coastal Wetlands Planning, Protection, and Restoration Act (CWPPRA)
Port of Morgan City
FEMA

(650) Topical

Coastal Restoration and Preservation in Louisiana- present day

(651) Geographic

Morgan City, Louisiana
Lake End Park, Louisiana
Houma, Louisiana
Terrebonne Parish, Louisiana

(700) Name of interviewer in reverse order, birth and death dates if known.

Ruckstuhl, Cole October 13, 1986