MEMORANDUM

RE: Disclosure of Ownership Affidavit

The Louisiana Legislature requires all for-profit corporations to file a Disclosure of Ownership Affidavit with the Louisiana Secretary of State's office in Baton Rouge before contracting with state government. A copy of this affidavit is attached and should be submitted together with a filing cost of $20 to the Secretary of State, Corporations Division, P. O. Box 94125, Baton Rouge, Louisiana 70804-9125.

You are responsible for filing this form and forwarding a copy stamped by the Secretary of State to Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority before your contract will be processed. The original should be retained for your files and used for future projects.

Non-profit and Limited Liability Corporations (LLC) are exempt from this requirement. For-profit corporations whose stock is publicly traded are also exempt.

If an out-of-state, for-profit corporation is doing business in Louisiana, then they must also file the disclosure affidavit. If the out of state business is not registered to do business in Louisiana, then you must contact the Secretary of State's office at 225-342-4479 to receive and complete all necessary documents to do business in Louisiana.

Remember, evidence that the disclosure affidavit has been filed will be required before the contract will be approved by this office. A copy of the affidavit with the Secretary of State's stamp on it will suffice as evidence.
